It may then transact the business of fire insurance, automobile insurance, inland transportation insurance, personal property insurance, public liability insurance and theft insurance, and in addition thereto, civil commotion insurance, earthquake 40 insurance, limited or inherent explosion insurance, falling aircraft insurance, impact by vehicles insurance, limited hail insurance, sprinkler leakage insurance, water damage insurance, weather insurance and windstorm insurance, limited to the insurance of the same property as is insured 45 under a policy of fire insurance of the Company.

Additional
amounts for certain classes of business.

(2) The Company shall not commence any of the other classes of insurance authorized by section six of this Act until the paid capital, or the paid capital together with the surplus has been increased by an amount or amounts depending upon the nature of the additional class or classes of business as follows, that is to say:—for aircraft insurance the said increase shall be not less than forty thousand dollars; for boiler insurance, excluding machinery, not less than forty thousand dollars; for credit insurance not less than forty thousand dollars; for earthquake insurance not less than ten thousand dollars; for employers' liability insurance not less than twenty thousand dollars; for explosion insurance not less than forty thousand dollars; for falling aircraft insurance not less than ten thousand dollars; for fidelity insurance not less than fifty thousand dollars; for forgery insurance not less than forty thousand dollars; for hail insurance not less than fifty thousand dollars; for impact by vehicles insurance not less than ten thousand dollars; for livestock insurance not less than forty thousand dollars; for machinery insurance not less than forty thousand dollars; for marine insurance not less than one hundred thousand dollars; for personal accident insurance not less than forty thousand dollars; for plate glass insurance not less than twenty thousand dollars; for real property insurance not less than twenty thousand dollars; for sickness insurance not less than twenty thousand dollars; for sprinkler leakage insurance not less than ten thousand dollars; for surety insurance not less than fifty thousand dollars; for water damage insurance not less than twenty thousand dollars; for weather insurance not less than twenty thousand dollars; for windstorm insurance not less than fifty thousand dollars;

Periodic
increase of paid capital
and surplus.

(3) The Company shall, during the five years next after the date of its being registered for the transaction of fire insurance, increase its paid capital and surplus so that at the end of the first year it will be at least fifteen thousand dollars more than is required under the foregoing subsections of this section, and at the end of the second year at least thirty thousand dollars more than so required, and at the end of the third year at least forty-five thousand dollars more than so required, and at the end of the fourth year at least sixty thousand dollars more than so required, and at the end of the fifth year at least seventy-five thousand dollars more than so required.

When Company
may transact
any or all
classes of insurance
business.

(4) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in this section the Company may transact all or any of the classes of insurance business authorized by section six of this Act when the paid capital amounts to at least five hundred thousand dollars and the paid capital together with the surplus amounts to at least one million dollars.

"Surplus"
defined.

(5) In this section the word "surplus" means the excess of assets over liabilities, including the amount paid on account of capital stock and the reserve of unearned premiums calculated pro rata for the unexpired term of all policies of the Company in force.

5

R.S. 1952,
c. 31, to
apply.

8. The Canadian and British Insurance Companies Act shall apply to the Company.
